

Allen County Democratic Convention.

The Democrats of Allen county are requested to meet, in their several townships, on the first Monday (being the 7th day) of April, and elect Delegates to attend a County Convention, to be held in the city of Fort Wayne, at a time to be hereafter named, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Legislature, Clerk of the Circuit Court, Recorder, and other county offices to be filled at the August election, and also to appoint Delegates to represent the county in the Congressional District Convention.

Agreeable to a vote of the County Convention, the townships will send the following number of Delegates to the Convention, viz:

Abie	3	Maumee	3
Adams	4	Marion	3
Adams Creek	6	Monroe	3
Adams River	3	Perry	5
Jefferson	3	Pleasant	3
Lafayette	3	Scioto	3
Lake	4	Springfield	4
Madison	3	St. Joseph	4
Marion	9	Washington	7
Wayne	20

By order of the County Committee.
March 6th, 1851.

The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

SATURDAY, MARCH 8, 1851.

Mr. V. B. PALMER, Tribune Buildings New York; Third and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia; and Colley's Building, Boston, is Sole Agent for the Sentinel in those cities, and is authorized to receive subscriptions, advertisements, &c. on our account.

SUPPER.

The Ladies of the Baptist Church will have a SUPPER, in Hanna's Block, on Thursday evening, the 13th inst.

Admission, 12 1/2 cents. Doors open at 6 o'clock.

CONCERT—This Evening!

The PENNSYLVANIA VOCALISTS will give a Concert this evening at the Court House, commencing at a choice selection of Glees, Trios, Quartets, Quintets, Duets, Solos, &c. The Vocalists are five in number—Mr. J. C. Preston, Mr. A. Bingham, Mr. S. D. Raymond, Miss E. Bingham, and Miss J. M. Preston. Their performances are very highly spoken of in the Michigan papers, and we are assured by gentlemen of this city, who have heard them, that they are at least equal to any singers who have visited this place. We bespeak for them a full house.

They will probably give another concert on Monday evening, if a suitable room can be procured.

Doors to be opened at 7 o'clock, concert to commence at 7 1/2. Admission, 25 cents.

SWAMP LANDS.—The Legislature has fixed the price of the swamp lands donated to the state, at One Dollar and twenty-five cents per acre—the purchasers, in addition, to be at the expense of draining the same!

This, it seems to us, is a ridiculous movement on the part of our Senators; and will prevent the lands ever being sold or settled. They have been in market for years, and without finding purchasers; no one would even locate them with land warrants, which might have been done at a cost not exceeding 60 to 70 cents per acre. It cannot therefore be expected that purchasers can now be found who will pay $1.25 per acre, and be compelled to drain them.

The act of Congress, ceding those lands to the state, contains a provision requiring the state to drain them, out of the proceeds of the first sales. It would have been wiser if the state had complied with these requisitions.—The lands would then have sold more readily, and the right of the state to them would have been ratified by the general government—which may now be a matter of doubt; as by our non-compliance with the terms of the grant, it may be questionable whether we have not forfeited all right to the lands.

The Legislature has certainly shown great ignorance on this subject; or, what is worse, the bill has been framed with a view to prevent the sale of the land, and retard the improvement and settlement of the country in which they lay. We hope the next Legislature will amend the law, make it in conformity with the terms of the act of Congress ceding the lands to us, and better adapted to secure their early sale and settlement.

The act of the Legislature further provides that the lands shall be sold by the Registers and Receivers of the U. S. Land Offices, who shall each receive a compensation of one per cent, on the amount of the sales. The proceeds are appropriated and pledged to the payment of the state debt. The Surveyors, employed in locating the lands, are to be allowed $3 per day; their deputies $2 per day; and other hands $1 per day. Orders for such payments are to be made by the officers of the counties in which the lands lay, which are to be audited by the Auditor of State, and warrants drawn on the state treasury for the amount, payable out of any money not otherwise appropriated. Ten thousand dollars, out of the first money received for the sale of the lands, are appropriated to meet these expenditures.

COUNTY CONVENTION.—By the notice at the head of this column, it will be seen that the Democrats of the several townships are required, at the approaching township election, to appoint delegates to a county convention to be held in May for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various offices to be filled at the August election.

As this will be the most important election ever held in the state, we trust our friends will be careful in the selection of their delegates. None but good, reliable democrats—men who will sustain the usages of the party, and nominate no candidates, but such as are deserving the support and confidence of the democracy—ought to be appointed delegates.

Candidates for Congress and the various county offices will have to be nominated; but the most important nomination will be the one for the Legislature. The next Legislature will have to carry out the provisions of the new constitution; to provide for the various reforms in our Judiciary system; to prepare a new Probate System; establish a new and uniform mode of doing township and county business; decide on the Banking question; and make such other changes in our organic law as the new constitution provides for. It is essential therefore that we select the very best man in the county for this responsible station.

Let us, then, have a good convention, composed of tried and thorough-going democrats, who will select for us such a ticket as will command the hearty and united support of the democracy of the county.

Col. Benton is quite sick, at Washington, with the small-pox.

Mr. JAMES B. SHOAF has taken the well known Hanna House at Hunte town, and is now prepared to entertain pleasure parties, travelers, &c. in a superior style. Every body knows him, and whatever he undertakes he does up brown; he will make a first-rate lander, and his house will soon require the reputation of being one of the best in the country.

CORRUPTION.—Mr. Allen, M. C. from Massachusetts, during a recent debate on the payment of the Mexican indemnity, charged Hon. Dan. Webster, Sec. of State, with having received a bribe of $50,000 from the Wall Street and State street shavers and brokers.—The charge was of course indignantly denied by Mr. Webster's friends, but Mr. Allen says he can prove it if Congress will appoint a committee and investigate it! It looks significant, that Congress refused to appoint the committee.

THE LAKE.—Steamboats have made the passage from Detroit to Erie, but cannot yet get into Buffalo. The latter port is still blockaded with ice.

New Jersey Senator.—Com. Stockton has been elected to the United States Senate by the democrats in the New Jersey Legislature. We do not much admire the choice of the "Jersey Blues," and think they might have elected a Senator who would have been far more acceptable to the democracy of the Union. In 1840 the commodore was a whig; we then heard him make ranting counsils, hard core speeches in New York. Since then he has been president of a railway in New Jersey, whose grasping monopolizing spirit has rendered them justly obnoxious to the citizens of the state,—opposition to which monopoly was one of the chief causes which enabled the democrats to carry that state.

The excuse we see offered for Stockton's election, is, that he is in favor of the compromise measures. This we look upon as a poor excuse. The compromise measures are well enough in their way, but they should not be allowed to supersede democratic principles entirely. We doubt the expediency or propriety of engraving them on our platform at all. A man may, in our opinion, be a good democrat, who does not believe in those measures; and we would much prefer a sound, reliable democrat of this stamp, to an unsound, fishy one, however strongly attached he might be to the compromise. We are in favor of standing by the old landmarks of the party.

The Ladies' Keepsake.—We have received the January No. of a neat little periodical under this title, edited by Professor Abbott, and published by John S. Taylor, 143 Nassau Street, New-York. The numbers will each be embellished with splendid engravings of the most illustrious Women of the Bible, with a descriptive sketch of each. The number before us contains an engraving and sketch of Jephtha's Daughter.

The Keepsake will form a beautiful annual volume, especially adapted to the wants of the religious community, and is cheap as it is beautiful. It will be sent, free of postage, for $1.00 per annum; seven copies for $5.00; fifteen copies for $10.00.

WAGGONERS, or, The Prophecy. An Indian Tale. By Major Richardson. Published by Dewitt & Davenport, Tribune Buildings, New-York. Price 50 cents. We are indebted to the publishers for a copy of this well-written tale. It is a work of thrilling interest, giving a graphic history of the soldiers who first occupied the forts in this northwestern region. The scene is laid at Detroit and Michilimackinac, at the time of Pontiac's celebrated attempt to get possession of the former of these posts.

Gen. Lane in California.—It seems that Gen. Lane, instead of being on the way home, as has been recently published, is in mines of California, digging gold. The Sacramento Transcript says of him: "This gallant officer is now laboring in the mines on Oney's Creek, Redding's Digging, about four miles from the springs. He is represented as being one of the most steady and hard working miners in that whole region of country, being engaged from early morn until the close of day. He has in his employ two half-breeds, who, he claims, are no way around him, the same powers of endurance with himself.

GEN. SCOTT IN INDIANA.—The Richmond (Va) Enquirer makes the following remark on the nomination of Gen. Scott for the Presidency, by the Whigs, at the Capital of the State: "The nomination by a whig officer seekers at Indianapolis, does not seem to take very well. But few of the whigs have heard Scott's name, in accordance with the request of the meeting at the Capital. The Wayne Co. Whig says its preference is for Fillmore, and the Cambridge Revere says the Whig speaks its sentiments. The Palladium is mum, and the New Centinel praises Gen. Scott, but don't hoist his name. The Connersville paper is the only one in this district that runs up the General's name at its mast head. "The time of the whig party are for Fillmore—the whigs, who desire to get in, are for Scott."

PASSAGE OF THE PORTAGE BILL.—The Cheap Postage Bill debated for some days past in the Senate has passed—the Bill as it came from the House, but the one by Mr. Rusk. The most material difference between Mr. Rusk's Bill and the House Bill are—Mr. Rusk's Bill provides three cents when prepaid, five cents when not prepaid, on letters less than half an ounce, and for any distance exceeding three thousand miles the double these rates. Instead of a uniform rate of one cent on newspaper, it provides a tariff of five cents per page to twenty-five cents per quarter for weekly papers according to distance. The bill also provides for a uniform rate of postage on all letters, and it is very doubtful whether the House will concur in enough of the provisions of the bill, in this shape, to guarantee its passage.

A Note of Mutiny.—A Washington letter writer, in the Cleveland Herald who signs "Jerome Cotton," in his effusions is down on the election of General Scott to the post of Lieut. General. He thinks there is too much fostering of the military spirit now—without this Congressional stimulus; and felicitates himself that the measure will be killed in the House of Representatives.

The Pacific Railroad.—An intelligent gentleman who has been the overland route to California, thus speaks of this enterprise:

"A railroad along that route is a stupendous humbug. There is not sufficient timber between the Missouri river and the Sierra Nevada mountains to build one mile of the road. The greatest objection is, there is no route for the road. Excepting the Salt Lake valley, Carson's valley, east of Fort Bridger, and a small district about Fort Bridger, east of the Salt Lake, none of it can be called habitable, after passing one hundred miles west of the Missouri river. This is nature's indictment. A railroad never pays over a vast desert. Mountains present no obstacle that genius and industry may not surmount; but here is a ruinous waste—a dead void—that totally negates the idea of a railroad."

Mr. Webster's Letter in Prussia.—A letter from the Berlin correspondent, to the Philadelphia Bulletin, dated Jan. 16, contains the following:

"The steamer has just brought us that spicy correspondence between Webster and the Austrian Minister. It has been received with a shout of laughter almost from half Europe. The 'Daily News' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna, will be slightly disturbed thereby. The great organ of the democratic party in Prussia, the 'National Zeitung,' publishes the great part of it, and thinks it introduces a new era in diplomatic correspondence—hints that the 'decorous conventionalities' of Vienna,

RAILROAD ELECTION.

To the qualified voters of Allen county, Ind.:

WHEREAS, by the Act of the Legislature of the State of Indiana, approved January 15, 1851, and the subsequent amendments thereto, it is, amongst other things, provided as follows, to wit:

Sec. 4. That the County Commissioners of any county through which said railroad may be located, and with the consent of a majority of the legal voters of such county, to be expressed as hereinafter provided, be and they are hereby authorized and required to subscribe in the name and for the benefit of such county, to the capital stock of said company, any sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars.

Sec. 12. That before any stock shall be subscribed in said company by the Commissioners of any county, under the provisions of this act, the question shall be submitted to the qualified electors of such county—(1) Whether the county shall become a subscriber or not? and to this question it is further provided, that upon a written application of thirty or more citizens of such county to the sheriff of the same, thirty days before any election for said election, it shall be the duty of said sheriff to give notice, at least ten days prior to said election, by advertisement in all the newspapers published in said county, and continue the same in said papers until the time of said election, that a vote will be taken for or against such subscription, by using one of the following phrases, to be printed or written on their ballots: "Railroad subscription," "No Railroad subscription."

Sec. 13. That the Judges of said elections, in the several townships, shall be and they are respectively kept a statement of all the votes given for and against such subscription at said elections, and within three days after said elections said judges shall certify to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of said county, the number of votes given for or against the proposition; and it is hereby made the duty of said Clerk, in the presence of two Justices of the Peace of said county to examine and make a record of the votes given in said county against, and all the votes given in favor of subscription, which said abstract shall be signed by said Clerk and said Justices, and filed in the office of said Clerk; and it is further provided, that if the vote given in said county is in favor of subscription, said Clerk shall forthwith certify the same to the County Commissioners of such county, who shall thereupon be and they are hereby authorized and required to subscribe to said stock in said railroad company, and in all respects to conform themselves to the provisions of this act.

And, WHEREAS, a written application has been made to me, the undersigned Sheriff of said county, signed by more than thirty citizens of said county, requesting me to give notice to the qualified voters of said county, that at the Spring election, to be held in said county, on the 7th day of April, A. D. 1851, a vote will be taken for or against such subscription, by using one of the following phrases, to be printed or written on their ballots: "Railroad subscription," "No Railroad subscription," to be printed or written on their ballots, and I have accordingly given notice, at least ten days prior to said election, by advertisement in all the newspapers published in said county, and continue the same in said papers until the time of said election, that a vote will be taken for or against such subscription, by using one of the following phrases, to be printed or written on their ballots: "Railroad subscription," "No Railroad subscription."

W. H. McDONALD, Sheriff of Allen county, Ind.

Sherriff's Office, Ft. Wayne, Feb. 27, 1851.

BABCOCK & CO., WHOLESALE GROCERS

AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

Nos. 65 & 67 WATER STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

A large and general assortment GROCERIES kept constantly on hand.

Also liberal advances made on Consignments of PRODUCE.

16033.

R. SUTHERLAND, MANUFACTURER OF

Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware,

AND DEALER IN

Stoves, Hollow-ware, etc.,

NO. 18 SOUTH SIDE COLUMBIA STREET, FORT WAYNE.

REURNS his thanks to the public for the liberal patronage he has received, and re-affirms to them that he has now on hand a large assortment of goods in his line, which he has on such terms as the trusts as the best of the public.

All the latest and most approved styles of

Parlor, COOKING

AND

Box STOVES

at the very low prices for CASH—

will save money by giving him a call.

A large assortment of TIN WARE, warranted the best workmanship, kept constantly on hand.

Jobbing and Repairing of all kinds done without delay.

F. B. 15, 1851.

H. H. WHITE, SURGEON DENTIST,

RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of this place and vicinity, that he has located himself permanently in this place, for the purpose of practicing dentistry, and is prepared to perform all operations for the preservation of the natural, or restoration of artificial TEETH, in the best possible manner.

OFFICE.—One door a wh. of R. W. Taylor's, new Store, Phoenix Block, second story.

Fort Wayne, Nov. 18, 1850. 1F21

STIMSON & Co's

N. York, N. Orleans, & Mobile Express

CONNECTING with the WEST and NORTH BY RESPONSIBLE EXPRESS LINES, keep the principal towns in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia, Ohio, Illinois, the Western States generally, the Mississippi and the River towns, and the prominent places in Georgia, and the Carolinas.

Our facilities are so extensive and perfect, that we can secure the safe and speedy

TRANSPORTATION

Of Freight, Trunks, Packages, and Valuable Parcels, from one end of the Country to the other, and the most remote points.

From our many years experience in the Express business, well connected with Messrs. Adams & Co. and our numerous advantages in other respects, (not the least of which is the confidence and patronage of the New York community,) we are assured that we shall never cease to give the most reliable and satisfactory service to our friends, the Merchants, Bankers, and Manufacturers generally.

We beg leave to call attention to our California Express from New Orleans, and our Express between New Orleans and Mobile.

St. Charles Hotel Building, N. Orleans, and

Office: No. 25 Wall-street, New York.

Feb. 1, 1851.

The Last Arrival of New Goods!

THE latest and largest arrival of goods in this season at the cheap cash store of WALKER & McMULLEN, comprising a general assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Queens and Hardware, Boots and Shoes, Nails, Glass, &c., in fact every thing that is usually found in the best arranged establishments in the West.

It would be too tedious to attempt the enumeration of

Fancy & Staple Articles

of which our stock consists, but persons in need of a little of everything, can find them here at prices much below the price usually charged in this place, for goods of inferior fabrics. Our regular customers are well aware of the truth of the above statement, and those who have not called upon us are respectfully requested to call, and we will guarantee their being satisfied of the fact. For example we are selling good Alpacas at 18 Cts. per Yard!

Fast Colored Calicoes at 8 & 10 Cts. per Yd!

and sheeting as low as our neighbors, who make quite a monopoly on article, but they understand well the method of taking from the article and adding a double portion to another.

But we are not given to writing gas stories, nor do we attempt to make humbug look like the truth, or to make a false statement appear to be true. We are where to the principle, that truth, if not strange, is far preferable to fiction.

Before closing this we would most cordially thank our friends and customers for their very liberal support and patronage since our opening, and hope by strict attention to business and low prices to merit a continuance of their favors.

WALKER & McMULLEN

Dec. 21, 1850. 325

French and German Languages,

MUSIC, &c.

MISS IDA HOLTZMILLER informs the citizens of Allen county, that she has recently arrived from Germany, and has located herself permanently in this place, for the purpose of teaching the French and German languages, and will also give instruction in the Piano and singing, embroidery, fine needlework, &c. on accommodating terms.

Enquire at her residence in the house of Mrs. Evans, corner of Berry Street and Maiden Lane, or at Mr. Anthony K. Wagner's office, near S. H. Hooff's Drug Store, Calhoun Street.

Nov. 30. 6m21

CHAMBERLAIN'S

Indiana Gazetteer.

I received, and for sale by C. L. HILL, the Indiana Gazetteer, Third Edition, containing a general view of the state, its history, topography, climate and health, lakes, rivers and mineral improvements, manufactures and commerce, antiquities, political institutions, &c. &c. also a particular description of all counties, towns, water courses, &c.

Published by E. Chamberlain, Indiana. Price, Jan. 4, 1851.

BLANK BOOKS.—2000 quires Blank Book of all varieties, full and half bound, at wholesale prices. C. L. HILL.

GERMAN BIBLES and T. statements;

do. do. HURST & STOPPLET.

U. S. Farmers who want good 3-hooped

Pail, can find it at the Farmers' Depot.

ORFF & SCHWEGMAN.

SHERRIFF'S OFFICE, Ft. Wayne, Feb. 27, 1851.

BABCOCK & CO., WHOLESALE GROCERS

AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

Nos. 65 & 67 WATER STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

A large and general assortment GROCERIES kept constantly on hand.

Also liberal advances made on Consignments of PRODUCE.

16033.

R. SUTHERLAND, MANUFACTURER OF

Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware,

AND DEALER IN

Stoves, Hollow-ware, etc.,

NO. 18 SOUTH SIDE COLUMBIA STREET, FORT WAYNE.

REURNS his thanks to the public for the liberal patronage he has received, and re-affirms to them that he has now on hand a large assortment of goods in his line, which he has on such terms as the trusts as the best of the public.

All the latest and most approved styles of

Parlor, COOKING

AND

Box STOVES

at the very low prices for CASH—

will save money by giving him a call.

A large assortment of TIN WARE, warranted the best workmanship, kept constantly on hand.

Jobbing and Repairing of all kinds done without delay.

F. B. 15, 1851.

H. H. WHITE, SURGEON DENTIST,

RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of this place and vicinity, that he has located himself permanently in this place, for the purpose of practicing dentistry, and is prepared to perform all operations for the preservation of the natural, or restoration of artificial TEETH, in the best possible manner.

OFFICE.—One door a wh. of R. W. Taylor's, new Store, Phoenix Block, second story.

Fort Wayne, Nov. 18, 1850. 1F21

STIMSON & Co's

N. York, N. Orleans, & Mobile Express

CONNECTING with the WEST and NORTH BY RESPONSIBLE EXPRESS LINES, keep the principal towns in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia, Ohio, Illinois, the Western States generally, the Mississippi and the River towns, and the prominent places in Georgia, and the Carolinas.

Our facilities are so extensive and perfect, that we can secure the safe and speedy

TRANSPORTATION

Of Freight, Trunks, Packages, and Valuable Parcels, from one end of the Country to the other, and the most remote points.

From our many years experience in the Express business, well connected with Messrs. Adams & Co. and our numerous advantages in other respects, (not the least of which is the confidence and patronage of the New York community,) we are assured that we shall never cease to give the most reliable and satisfactory service to our friends, the Merchants, Bankers, and Manufacturers generally.

We beg leave to call attention to our California Express from New Orleans, and our Express between New Orleans and Mobile.

St. Charles Hotel Building, N. Orleans, and

Office: No. 25 Wall-street, New York.

Feb. 1, 1851.

Oysters, Oysters.

THE undersigned has established an OYSTER LINE between New York, Philadelphia, Michigan, and will be enabled to furnish our citizens with

Fresh Baltimore Oysters,

at very low rates. General Depot at S. M. BLACK & Co's Grocery Store, Corner of Calhoun and Berry sts.

R. C. FILLSON, Fort Wayne, Ind. Dec. 10, 1850.

B. W. OAKLEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware,

AND DEALER IN

STOVES, HOLLOW-WARE, &c.

No. 15 COLUMBIA STREET, FORT WAYNE.

THE undersigned has established an OYSTER LINE between New York, Philadelphia, Michigan, and will be enabled to furnish our citizens with

Fresh Baltimore Oysters,

at very low rates. General Depot at S. M. BLACK & Co's Grocery Store, Corner of Calhoun and Berry sts.

R. C. FILLSON, Fort Wayne, Ind. Dec. 10, 1850.

B. W. OAKLEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware,

AND DEALER IN

STOVES, HOLLOW-WARE, &c.

No. 15 COLUMBIA STREET, FORT WAYNE.

THE undersigned has established an OYSTER LINE between New York, Philadelphia, Michigan, and will be enabled to furnish our citizens with

Fresh Baltimore Oysters,

at very low rates. General Depot at S. M. BLACK & Co's Grocery Store, Corner of Calhoun and Berry sts.

R. C. FILLSON, Fort Wayne, Ind. Dec. 10, 1850.

B. W. OAKLEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware,

AND DEALER IN

STOVES, HOLLOW-WARE, &c.

No. 15 COLUMBIA STREET, FORT WAYNE.

THE undersigned has established an OYSTER LINE between New York, Philadelphia, Michigan, and will be enabled to furnish our citizens with

Fresh Baltimore Oysters,

at very low rates. General Depot at S. M. BLACK & Co's Grocery Store, Corner of Calhoun and Berry sts.

R. C. FILLSON, Fort Wayne, Ind. Dec. 10, 1850.

B. W. OAKLEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware,

AND DEALER IN

STOVES, HOLLOW-WARE, &c.

No. 15 COLUMBIA STREET, FORT WAYNE.

THE undersigned has established an OYSTER LINE between New York, Philadelphia, Michigan, and will be enabled to furnish our citizens with

Fresh Baltimore Oysters,

at very low rates. General Depot at S. M. BLACK & Co's Grocery Store, Corner of Calhoun and Berry sts.

R. C. FILLSON, Fort Wayne, Ind. Dec. 10, 1850.

B. W. OAKLEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware,

AND DEALER IN

STOVES, HOLLOW-WARE, &c.

No. 15 COLUMBIA STREET, FORT WAYNE.

THE undersigned has established an OYSTER LINE between New York, Philadelphia, Michigan, and will be enabled to furnish our citizens with

Fresh Baltimore Oysters,

at very low rates. General Depot at S. M. BLACK & Co's Grocery Store, Corner of Calhoun and Berry sts.

R. C. FILLSON, Fort Wayne, Ind. Dec. 10, 1850.

B. W. OAKLEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware,

AND DEALER IN

STOVES, HOLLOW-WARE, &c.

No. 15 COLUMBIA STREET, FORT WAYNE.

THE undersigned has established an OYSTER LINE between New York, Philadelphia, Michigan, and will be enabled to furnish our citizens with

Fresh Baltimore Oysters,

at very low rates. General Depot at S. M. BLACK & Co's Grocery Store, Corner of Calhoun and Berry sts.

R. C. FILLSON, Fort Wayne, Ind. Dec. 10, 1850.

B. W. OAKLEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware,

AND DEALER IN

STOVES, HOLLOW-WARE, &c.

No. 15 COLUMBIA STREET, FORT WAYNE.

THE undersigned has established an OYSTER LINE between New York, Philadelphia, Michigan, and will be enabled to furnish our citizens with

Fresh Baltimore Oysters,

at very low rates. General Depot at S. M. BLACK & Co's Grocery Store, Corner of Calhoun and Berry sts.

R. C. FILLSON, Fort Wayne, Ind. Dec. 10, 1850.

B. W. OAKLEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware,

AND DEALER IN

STOVES, HOLLOW-WARE, &c.

No. 15 COLUMBIA STREET, FORT WAYNE.

THE undersigned has established an OYSTER LINE between New York, Philadelphia, Michigan, and will be enabled to furnish our citizens with

Fresh Baltimore Oysters,

at very low rates. General Depot at S. M. BLACK & Co's Grocery Store, Corner of Calhoun and Berry sts.

R. C. FILLSON, Fort Wayne, Ind. Dec. 10, 1850.

B. W. OAKLEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware,

AND DEALER IN

STOVES, HOLLOW-WARE, &c.

No. 15 COLUMBIA STREET, FORT WAYNE.

THE undersigned has established an OYSTER LINE between New York, Philadelphia, Michigan, and will be enabled to furnish our citizens with

Fresh Baltimore Oysters,

at very low rates. General Depot at S. M. BLACK & Co's Grocery Store, Corner of Calhoun and Berry sts.

R. C. FILLSON, Fort Wayne, Ind. Dec. 10, 1850.

B. W. OAKLEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

BRITANNIA SETS of Coffee, Tea, Sugar and Cream.

A new set, of new pattern just received by

WALKER & McMULLEN.

CHEAP DRY GOODS.

SHAWLS from 50 cents to $1.00.

10 pieces Merino 50 " 1.12

25 do do 18 " 75

50 do Gingham 12 " 25

20 do do 12 " 25

75 do Sheet 8 " 25

30 pieces Linsey 12 " 25

Extra Sheetings 24 yds wide.

Gentlemen's Fine Merino Cravats, &c.

WALKER & McMULLEN.

